

Alpha Moving & Storage delivers fresh start for New York City's Homeless;

Jersey City, NJ (PRWEB) June 26, 2008 – Alpha Moving & Storage (www.alphamoving.com), which has established itself as one of NY and NJ's premier relocation related service providers, has recently demonstrated its desire to give something back to the community, by packing and loading used furniture from previously furnished rental apartments in NYC, and delivering them to the facilities of 'Partnership for the Homeless' in Brooklyn, NY – Free of Charge!

"I feel privileged to be able to help here" said Steve A. Hadar, Founder and CEO of Alpha Moving & Storage. "We are fortunate to have been successful all these years; I was raised in New York City, and will always be a true New Yorker. I feel a deep desire to help the City's less fortunate in any way that I can. Good deeds make other good things happen" Hadar said.

"We know that during these challenging times for the economy, donating labor, trucks, fuel and tolls, must not be easily accomplished" said David Espinoza, Program Director for the 'Furnish a Future' Program. "Nevertheless, Alpha has graciously volunteered to do this for our cause and we are extremely grateful for that" said Espinoza.
